The Gyalwang Karmapa returns to India

The office of Administration of His Holiness the Seventeenth Gyalwang Karmapa, Ogyen Trinley Dorje, wishes to announce that His Holiness returned to India on 3rd June, 2008, after a successful two-week visit to the USA. His Holiness is happy to be back in India and is now at Gyuto Monastery in Dharamsala where He has resumed His religious studies and daily spiritual activities as the Karmapa.

This Office would like to express its deep gratitude to the Government of India and all the officials in the various Government agencies involved in facilitating the visit. We especially wish to convey our genuine appreciation to the Government and the people of India for the generous hospitality they have consistently shown to His Holiness ever since His arrival in India in 2000. We also extend our thanks to the Bureau of His Holiness the Dalai Lama in Delhi for their ongoing assistance and support.

The great success of His Holiness' recent visit was made possible by the dedicated and diligent efforts of His Holiness' many devotees in the United States. We particularly wish to thank the National and Regional Coordinating Committees and all Centers involved in making visit arrangements for their efficient work. We also offer our sincere gratitude to the government of USA for exceptional assistance during His Holiness' visit.

This Office would like to express its deepest appreciation to all who helped to make the visit successful and memorable.
